3 The best of Marbella

Marbella was recognised as Europe's best destination in 2024 by the Tops Travel Survey

Marbella is world-famous as one of the most beautiful destinations in Southern Europe. It has everything: beaches, mountains, old-world charm, a vibrant cosmopolitan atmosphere and a wonderful coastal microclimate that keeps the temperatures cooler in summer and warmer in winter.

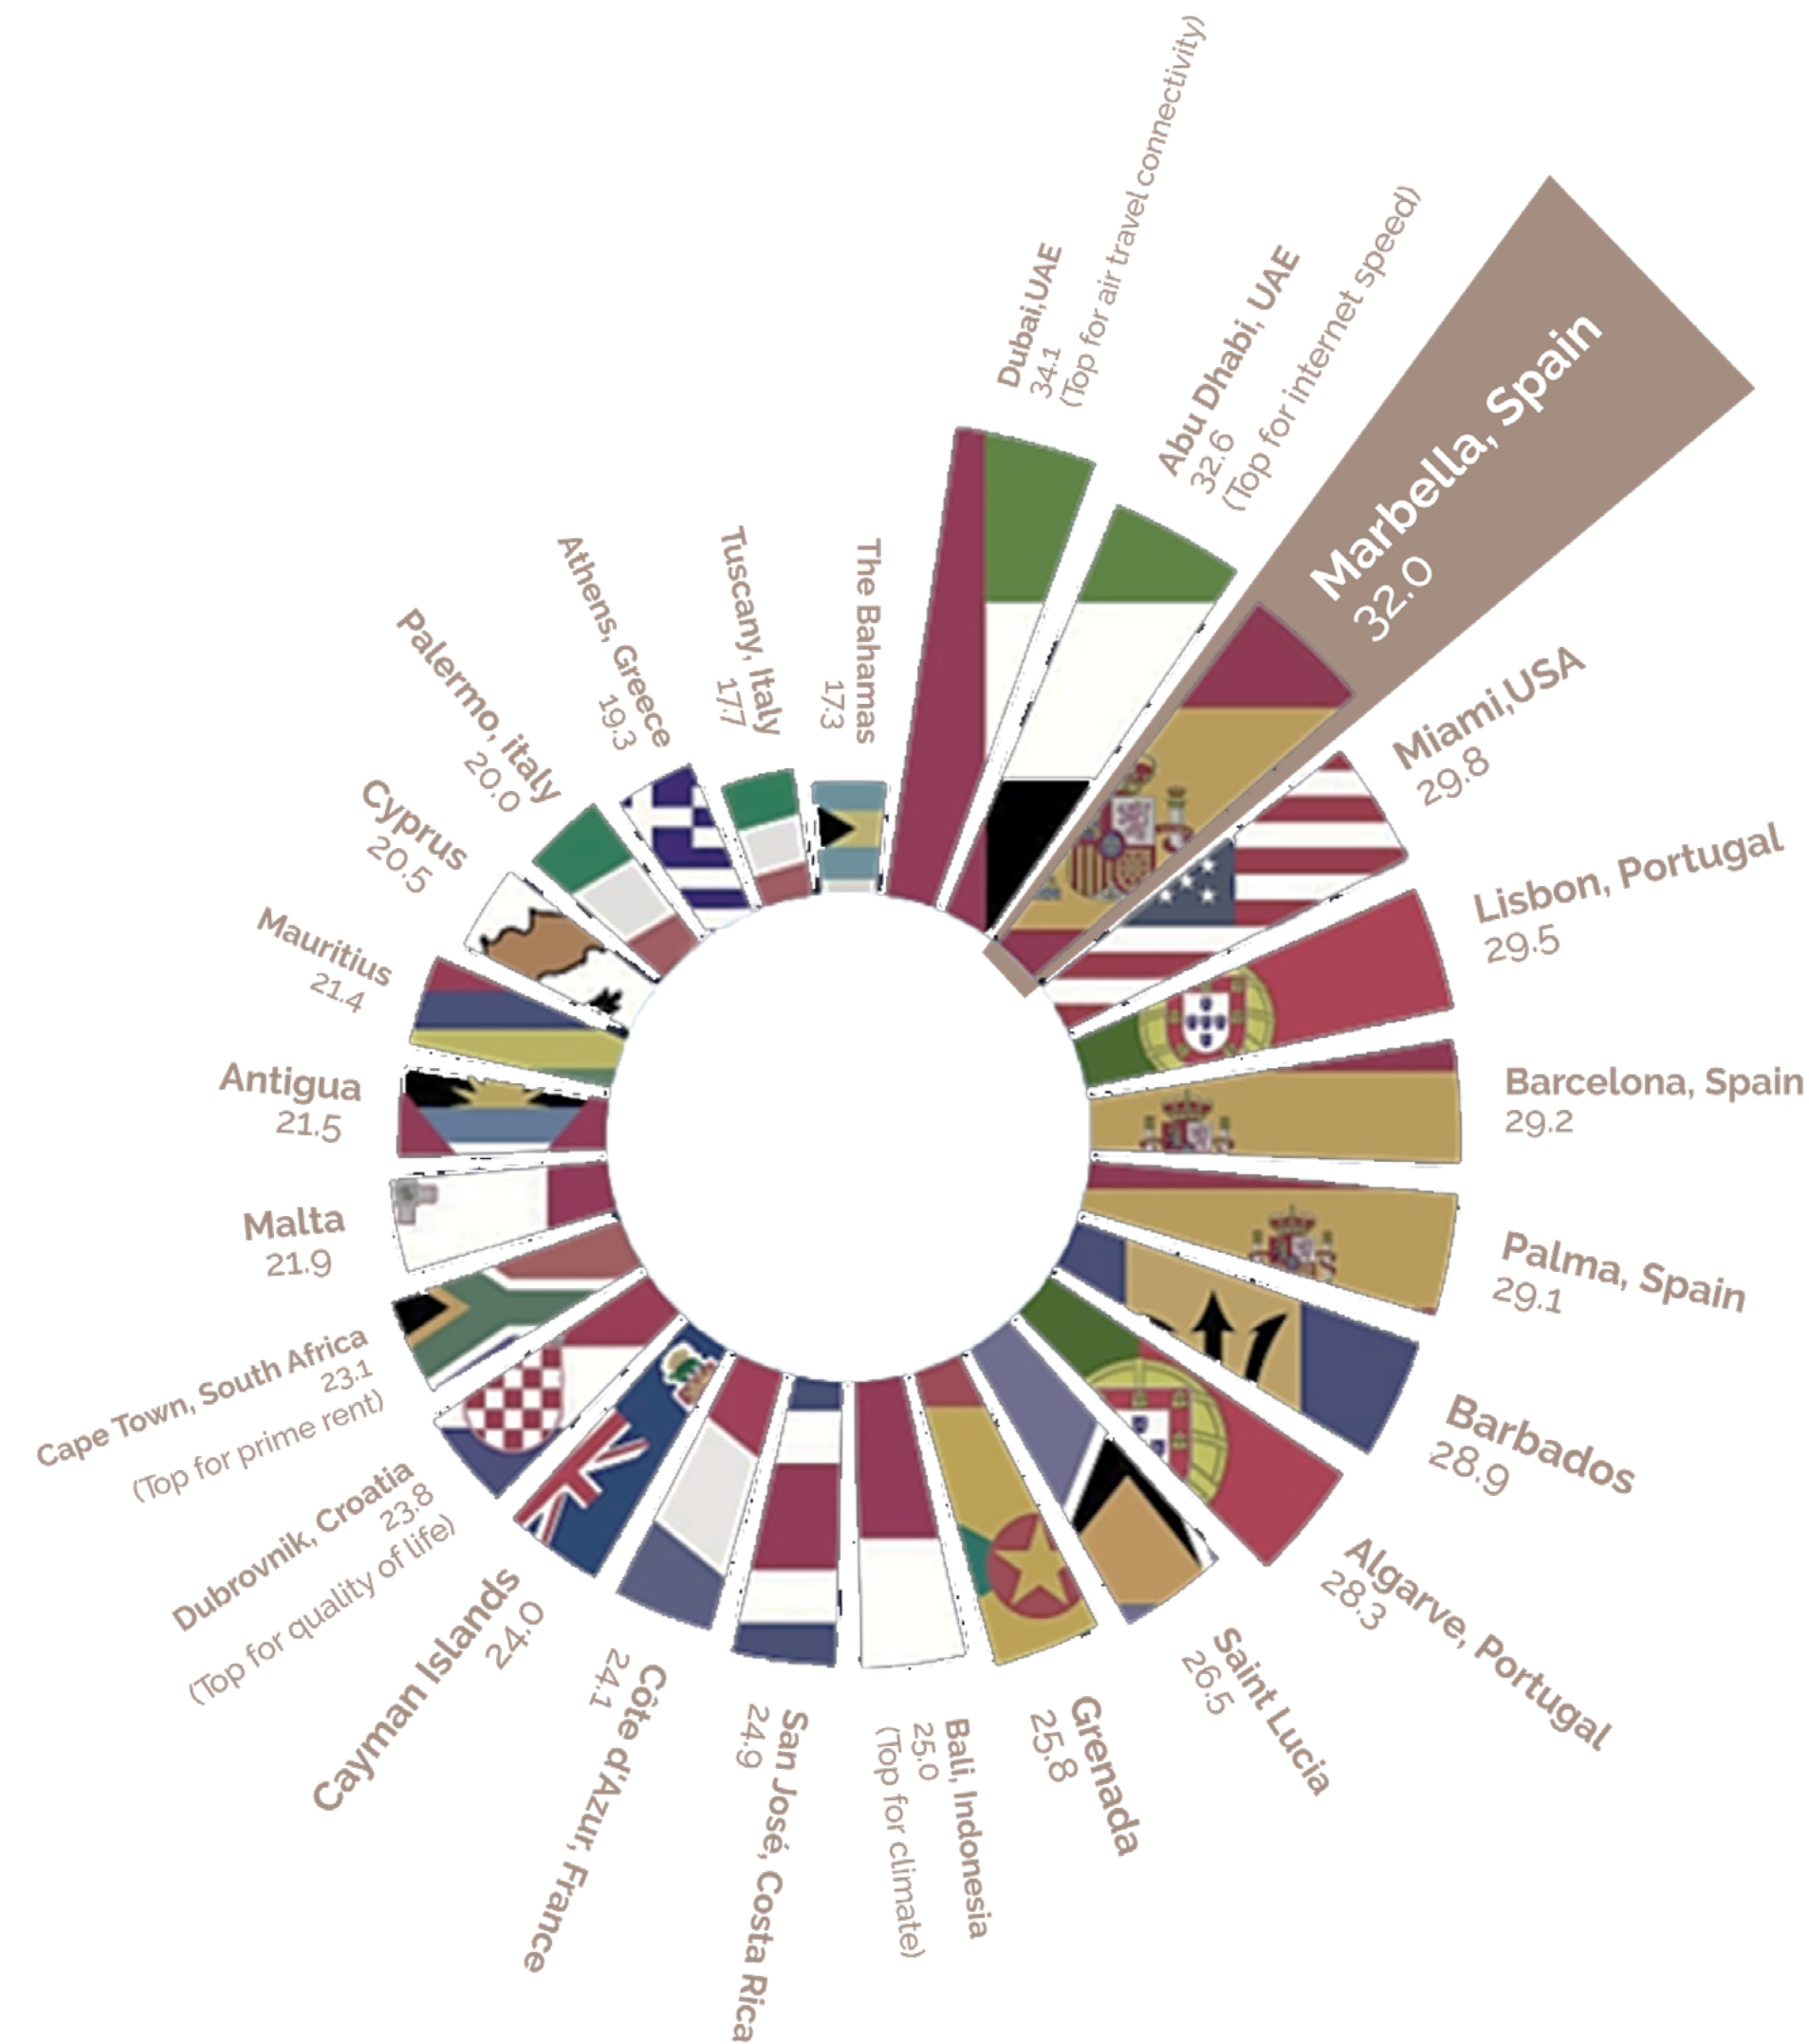

With restaurants such as Nobu, Cipriani and Dani Garcia, some of the world's most famous beach clubs, more than 100 golf clubs in the surrounding area, and the world-famous Puerto Banus Yacht Club, Marbella is the perfect location for a holiday home or a permanent residence.

Executive Nomad Index

The Nomad Index measures global cities and regions based on factors that appeal to remote professionals, such as infrastructure, quality of life, climate and connectivity.

Marbella has the highest ranking within Europe due to its exceptional combination of a luxurious lifestyle, robust infrastructure and appealing climate, making it a prime location for digital nomads and international professionals.

An unrivalled destination

Marbella is home to an array of luxury boutiques and high-end designer stores, offering an exceptional shopping experience. From internationally renowned brands to bespoke fashion houses, Marbella's upscale shopping scene allows residents and visitors to indulge in the finest fashion, jewellery, and lifestyle goods, all set against the backdrop of this glamorous coastal city.
